Ben Goldin is a Managing Director with Engle, Lindsley & Regan.

Ben has successfully assisted attorneys of all levels of seniority move to leading boutique, national, and international law firms, as well as in-house. Before joining ELR in 2017, Ben worked at another national legal search firm.

Ben received his B.A., with honors, from the University of Quebec in Montreal and his J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School. Prior to attending law school in the United States, Ben received master's degrees from the Institute of Political Sciences of Paris (Sciences Po) and the Catholic Institute of Paris.

Since 2020, Ben spends much of his time in the Alps with his two young daughters. They are already far better skiers than he is.
