Jessica Fabber is a Managing Director at Engle, Lindsley & Regan based out of the Houston Office.

Jessica brings her extensive experience in recruitment and people operations to ELR Legal Search, boasting a proven track record in the field. With 6 years of recruitment expertise, she specializes in facilitating placements for associates and partners within prominent law firms across the greater Houston, Dallas, and Austin areas.

Prior to joining ELR, Jessica served as the head of recruitment at a health-tech company; she has previously utilized her recruitment expertise at a boutique legal recruitment firm and global entertainment company. She considers herself fortunate to have discovered a career path that allows her to make a meaningful impact by assisting candidates in uncovering their strengths, nurturing genuine relationships, and adding value to client companies through talent acquisition.

Drawing from her educational background in Communications and Psychology, Jessica harnesses her strong interpersonal skills in every interaction. She invests time in understanding individuals' interests and guides them toward envisioning a purposeful career trajectory.
